Improvement Club Holds Meeting

Considers Widening South Central Avenue—Plans for Advertising Community

Meeting called to order at 8:00 by President Wilson. E. R. Kennedy was elected Secretary, pro tempore.

It was moved, seconded and carried that the Club report favorably on Constitutional Amendment No. 15, and that a copy of the motion be sent to each of the five Senators and Assembly-men of this district, and also a copy be sent to the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

Minutes of the previous meeting being brought in at this time were read and approved. A communication from the Political Equality Club asking for the privilege of planting red geraniums in the park, and also to place receptacles on the streets for papers was read. It was moved, seconded and carried giving them the privilege to carry on this work.

It was moved, seconded and carried on motion of Mr. Farley that the present committee on industry be empowered to act for the Club in so far as giving all information to whatever concerns were found to be looking for an industrial location.

Mr. Shelly then addressed the Club, recommending the procuring of post cards with pictures of local scenes and views especially those showing the advantages of our climatic conditions in comparison with that of the Eastern States.

Mr. Thomas also addressed the meeting largely along the same line. Both men strongly recommending the community as a place especially adopted to people of means who are able to retire, with a desire of escaping the rigorous Eastern climate.

Mr. Berry stated that he had ordered a supply of Post Cards with local scenes, from the Southern Pacific Company.

It was moved, seconded and carried, and a Committee of three was appointed to take up the matter of widening Central Avenue on the South side of Campbell Avenue to the width of fifty feet as was originally intended and plotted by Mr. Campbell when he deeded said street to the County. Messrs. Duncan, Shelly and Thomas were appointed to interview the Supervisors in this matter.

Moved, seconded and carried that the bill, amounting to $12.50, for the signs placed on Hamilton Avenue and Campbell Avenue be paid.

Moved, seconded and carried that a Committee of three consisting of Messrs. Whitman, Kennedy and Wade be appointed to look into the matter of the raise of the telephone rate, and see if this increased rate could not be prevented, or the service be improved.

Moved, seconded and carried that the amount of $2.50 be allowed from the Treasury of the Improvement Club to the maintenance of the street lights.

Moved, seconded and carried that the Club pledge the sum of $5.00 toward the improvement of the park.

Mr. Berry offered a valuable suggestion for the improvement and convenience of the town in stating that he believed the depot could be moved from its present location down to Campbell Avenue, and by turning the building directly around and making the waiting room to face on Campbell Avenue, it would add largely to the convenience of the public both for the steam and electric cars, and furnish a much more convenient waiting room. It would also give the Railroad Company better freight yards at the other end of town where the depot is now located.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Secretary, pro tempore.

A Plea for the Operator

When the "girlie" at "Central" says "busy," don't let yourself be worked into a fret and a sweat; don't tell her in language all freckled with fire, you think her a quite near approach to a liar. Don't paw at the carpet, and don't chew the rag, nor roar as a bull when it sees a red flag, nor tell her in voicing that paints the air red, you'll have her tin-canned ere the sun goes to bed, but murmur in sugary, marshmallow words, 'twill fall on her ear as the carol of birds, to please ring you up when the line is at rest, and she raises the party of whom you're in quest, and when she replies she will do so, just hang the receiver up gently and not with a bang. You scolding old fellow, if you had to bear but half of the hello girl's burden of care, that temper of yours would explode with a boom; 'twould scatter oath fragments all over the room. They often are cursed at and growled at by men when trying to do just the best that they can to keep service moving along without hitch, when sore-headers believe them asleep at the switch, and sometimes the harsh words which fall on their ears fill their throats full of lumps and their eyes full of tears. Just do unto them as you'd have others do unto a sister of yours were she one of the crew, and you'll find that your services far better will be than if, by your crossness you rattle them, see? And all of the girls will pronounce you a dear, instead of an ill-tempered, sore-headed bear. Just give it a try, and if our words lack in truth you can boot us to Brighton and back.—James Barton Adams, in the Denver Times.

AN ARMY OF ONE HUNDRED
I. W. W. START FOR FRESNO

Coming by Freight from St. Louis, Expect to Gather 1000 en Route.

St. Louis.—An army of 100 unemployed men, consisting of three members of the Industrial Workers of the World and 97 sympathizers, left their quarters to march to Fresno, Cal., and take part in the free speech fight to be made there by the Industrial Workers.

By twos the army filed out Market street to Tower Grove station to catch freight trains to Kansas City, their first stopping place. All were not able to catch the same train and a meeting place has been arranged by the order in that city.

The army was lead by Joseph Sorensen, captain. Each man's name was registered in a book and he was given a postal card with which to notify the order should he go astray. These postals were addressed to the association at Kansas City and El Paso, Texas, the next stop.

The army created much excitement in the downtown district. When the army reaches Kansas City it will be enlarged to about 200. By picking up the unemployed along the route the marchers expect to number more than a thousand when they reach Fresno.

They claim they will have a right to "free speech" at Fresno. They say they cannot be arrested, as their number will be too large, and the city will be unable to provide for them should they be arrested, as this would cause the taxpayers to protest at the expense of feeding them.

New Infantry and Cavalry.

Immigration Not Overlooked in New Japanese Treaty

Washington.—In response to a request from Japan that the United States agreed to advance the date of making a new treaty with their country, the text of a new treaty has been brought before the Senate by President Taft. This, if passed, will take the place of the 1894 measure, which does not expire until July 17, 1912.

The essential difference between the proposed treaty and the existing convention is said to be that it omits all reference to immigration restrictions and leaves to the national honor of Japan the enforcement at her own ports of limitations upon immigration from Japan now expressly placed upon immigration into the United States. The document is said to provide that either country may denounce the treaty at the end of six months if it fails to operate as expected.

This new treaty is one of "trade and commerce," intended to replace the treaty of 1894 negotiated by the late Secretary Gresham and Baron Kurino, then Japanese Minister to the United States. That treaty is a most comprehensive document comprising 20 articles, dealing with trade, commerce and navigation, rights of dwelling, import and export duties, tonnage dues, port regulations, desertions, shipping rights, consular functions and other subjects.

The radical difference between this new treaty and the one now in force, and the one which may prove obnoxious to the western Senators, is understood to be the omission of any reference to the immigration question.

The two Governments have enjoyed the undeniable right to legislate regarding immigration, either by restriction or total exclusion of coolie labor. Unquestionably the United States Government could do this without any treaty stipulation on the subject, just as it did in the case of China when it enacted the Chinese exclusion laws.

Perhaps the most important feature of the document, which, while not part of the treaty, is attached to it in connection with the correspondence, is the following declaration:

"In proceeding this day to the signature of the treaty of commerce and navigation between Japan and the United States, the undersigned, Japanese Ambassador in Washington, duly authorized by his Government, has the honor to declare that the Imperial Japanese Government is fully prepared to maintain with equal effectiveness the limitation and control which they have for the past three years exercised in the regulation of the emigration of laborers to the United States."

Y. Uchida, Ambassador.

Solons at Sacramento Pass On Numerous Bills

Sacramento.—The Senate declared in favor of the establishment of a parcels post system by the Federal Government, as proposed in a joint resolution which was introduced by Senator Marshall Black of Palo Alto. When Senator Cartwright of Fresno asked Black how the parcels post would affect the merchants, Senator Boynton of Oroville construed the question as a sign of opposition to the measure, and said that he was for it whether any class of merchants disliked it or not, because the system would be of general benefit to the whole people. Cartwright explained that he was not against the resolution, but merely wanted information. He regarded the establishment of a parcels post as a step forward in the line of progressive legislation.

Black read figures to show the great difference between parcels post rates and express charges. Packages can be sent to and from foreign lands and through this country under the foreign parcels post system, he said, for a much less amount than it costs an American to send a package for a comparatively short distance by express. The difference in charges was almost unbelievable, he remarked. The vote for the resolution was unanimous. Senator Hurd's compromise vaccination bill was passed by the Assembly and is ready for the Governor's signature. The bill was opposed by a few members of the House and Joel of San Francisco attempted to have its consideration continued, but failed. The final vote showed Beatty, Chandler, Coghlan, Fitzgerald, Griffin, Joel, Schmitt and the Speaker opposing the measure.

Under the terms of the bill compulsory vaccination is done away with. Instead, parents who do not wish their children to be vaccinated may send them to school with a written statement to that effect. A record of the vaccinated children and those not vaccinated is to be kept by the Board of Health upon which to base suggestions for further legislation.

Judges of the District Court of Appeals, as well as other Judges of the State courts and constitutional officers of the State, are to be made liable to impeachment under the provisions of a resolution adopted by the Assembly providing for the submission to the people of a constitutional amendment to that effect. Assemblyman Brown, who introduced the resolution, explained that when, in 1905, the Appellate Court was established, the constitution was not amended to make the members of that court liable to impeachment, like other officials.

An Attempt to Get Exclusive
Transportation Control

New Orleans.—The Pacific Mail Steamship Company stirred up a bitter fight when it attempted to freeze out all competing lines in the traffic from Pacific to Atlantic seaboard by way of Panama.

San Francisco and New Orleans, bitter rivals for months for the exposition, have joined hands to fight the attempts of the trans-continental railroads to stifle competition by running the California-Atlantic Steamship line out of business.

The transportation committee of the progressive union, at a meeting, decided to join the San Francisco Merchants' Exchange in every possible maneuver to prevent the Pacific Mail Company, owned by the Southern Pacific, from forcing the independents out of business. The first step was a telegram to President Taft describing the situation to him. The Pacific Mail has lowered its rates to $5 a ton from the Pacific Coast to the Atlantic seaboard. It declared before a Congressional committee that it lost money at $8 a ton. The independent company cannot afford to enter into such a rate war.

Local commercial organizations have decided to stand by the independents because the Pacific Mail gave this city no service at all until the independents stepped in and established a regular sailing. The action of the Pacific Mail is declared to be an attempt to secure full control of the field prior to and in preparation for the opening of the Panama canal.

Indian Statue of Heroic Size
Companion to Liberty

New York.—The statue of Liberty in New York harbor is to have a companion in the form of a gigantic American Indian. Rodman Wanamaker's project to erect, at his own expense, a statue of this form now seems sure of being carried out. A resolution giving Government authority for such a statue was adopted by the House of Representatives at Washington and it is expected that the Senate will concur in the action.

Wanamaker's plan was first announced when he gave a dinner in honor of Colonel William F. Cody in this city on May 12, 1909, and it was received with great enthusiasm by Frederick Remington, Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, General Leonard Wood and other prominent guests.

The matter was taken up by the Improved Order of Red Men and the outcome was a resolution giving Government authority for the use of the land, which was presented in Congress by Representative Joseph A. Goulden of New York.

The statue will be of heroic size and will surpass in beauty the statue of Liberty, near which it will stand. It was agreed before the death of Frederick Remington that the famous painter of Indians should design the figure.

FINANCE COMMITTEE CALLS
ONE-TENTH SUBSCRIPTIONSFour Years Not Much Time to Build to Completion World's Fair City.

San Francisco.—The finance committee of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition has sounded the call for a showing on subscriptions that the first substantial steps may be taken.

With but four years in which to prepare for the opening of the gates of the fair in welcome to the entire world those charged with handling the immense task that must be completed in so short a time have determined not to lose a single day.

Every subscriber to exposition bonds has been called upon to pay in at once 10 per cent of the total amount of his subscription.

The money is needed now, in order that the work may proceed without delay. It is needed that ground may be broken as soon as a site is chosen; it is needed that architects may be put to work on plans for the palaces that are to rise on those grounds; it is needed that ambassadors may be sent all over the world to secure appropriations from foreign nations and exhibits from every corner of the globe.

By reason of the uncertainty existing until ten days ago over the matter of Government recognition the call for funds was delayed until the final action was taken by Congress and the resolution awarding the great celebration to San Francisco had received the signature of President Taft. According to the plan of collection determined upon by the finance committee some time ago, the ten per cent installment now asked for was due on the last day of last year.

Kills Father-in-Law in Self Defence.

Seattle.—William Miller, who beat his father-in-law, Joseph Fischer, to death last week, at Enumelaw, 20 miles east of Tacoma, has been released on his own recognizance after a coroner's jury had failed to fix the blame. Evidence of eye witnesses was that Fischer knocked the younger man down. Miller rose with a stone in his hand and caved in Fischer's skull. When the officers went to bring in the body a big dog owned by Fischer stood guard and refused to allow any one to come near. The officers tried to coax him away, but to no purpose. They were obliged to shoot it.

Jealous Swain Shoots Sweetheart.

Weaverville.—John Heler, aged 30, shot and seriously wounded Miss Mattie Banderhoff at Hay Fork, 20 miles from here, and then killed himself. Heler and Miss Banderhoff went to a dance together and it is believed that Heler was jealous of the attentions given the girl by other suitors.

IT'S BEST TO BE TRUTHFUL

Certain Cleveland Drummer Decides That Lying Doesn't Pay in His Business.

"In the long run—in my business at any rate—," remarked a Cleveland traveling man, "it seems to be just as well to tell the truth. I never forgot an incident of my first trip on the road. One of the first towns I made was Franklin, down in the southern part of this state. It was marked on the map and on the folder in fairly good-sized type, and I took it for granted that Franklin was a good deal of a place.

"So I walked up the street till I came to a dry good store—dry goods being my line then—and I engaged the proprietor in conversation. "Mr. Smith," I began, "there is another party here in town that's extremely anxious to get hold of our line, but I've heard of you as being a thoroughly enterprising merchant and I'm going to give you a chance to take on these goods if you're interested. You shall have first choice and if your order is one that will justify selling to you exclusively in this city, I shall not go to see your competitor at all."

"Throughout all this talk that I was giving him, he kept looking at me in a funny way, but without any particular change of expression.

"You say my competitor is anxious to take on the line," he asked me at last.

"Yes, indeed, he's been writing in and trying his best to tie up with us."

"Then," replied my prospective customer, "you'd better go and talk to him. And, by the way, when you find him I wish you'd come back here and let me know where his place is. I was under the impression until now that there wasn't any other dry goods store in town."

Wildcat in a City Park.

A giant wildcat that had been slaughtering quail and cottontail rabbits in the Golden Gate park for the last three years was trapped recently by George J. Barron. The party gamekeepers and others often caught sight of the destructive beast, but it was so wily that they never could get an opportunity of drawing a bead on it. The great cat was thought to come from the Santa Cruz mountains.

The other day the lad rigged up a plain box trap and baited it with a piece of fresh beef, setting the contrivance in the shrubbery near the chain of lakes. He returned several hours later and found the big cat snarling in the trap.

Prof. William G. Blunt, curator of the natural history department of the museum, was sent for, and after a close examination of the beast at a safe distance pronounced it a fine specimen of the hybrid wildcat of California. As hybrids of all kinds in the class of mammals are barred from the museum, the cat was killed and buried at the foot of a Monterey cypress. The animal weighed 40 pounds, and was one of the largest specimens that the professor had ever seen.—San Francisco Chronicle.

49,491,000 TRAVEL: NO LIVES LOST

It is a remarkable fact that according to a report just issued, that one-tenth of the estimated passenger traffic of 1910 over all railway lines was carried over the Harriman lines without the loss of a single life. This means that 49,491,000 people were carried without a single fatality. This result is ascribed to the installation of safety devices and is believed to have no parallel in the railroad world.

The results on the Harriman lines are due to a campaign waged by the management for years to reduce accidents and while other railroads have gone through a year without loss of life, no such record has been made for such a large total of passengers.

Taken on the one mile basis, it represents 3,000,000,000 passengers carried without a single fatality.

The number of accidents on the Pacific System of the Southern Pacific has also been reduced to one-third.

The Harriman system now has more miles of automatic block signal protection, than any other system in the world. Julius Kruttschnitt, director of maintenance and operation on the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific Railroads, has directed special attention to the accident problem and by a reduction in accidents by giving complete publicity to all forms of accidents and their investigation, which, it is believed, spurred both officers and employees to greater efforts to safeguard lives entrusted to their care.

After many years of study in the active practice of medicine, Dr. R. V. Pierce found that when the stomach was out of order, the blood impure and there were symptoms of general breakdown, a tonic made of the glyceric extract of certain roots was the best corrective. This he called Warming the Eggs.

There was once an old lady in Scotland who kept a few hens. As she lived close to the house in which a church minister lived, he asked her to send him two new-laid eggs every morning, and he would pay her for them.

So the old lady sent her girl to the minister's house every morning with two eggs, and the minister's servant always thought the eggs were newly laid because they felt quite warm, as if they had just been taken from the hen's nest.

But one day the eggs were cold, so the servant asked: "Are the eggs fresh today, Janey? They do not seem warm."

The simple girl looked at the maid and then said: "O, ay, they're quite fresh, only my mother could not get the cat to sit on them this morning, as it ran away."

Escape of a Pennsylvania Jury.

"Bargain stands as it is. Each party says half the costs. Jury escaped." This is the entry in the docket of Justice of the Peace Thomas Allen of Mercer county after a suit over a horse trade. The jury retired and on a slip of paper was handed Justice Allen bearing the jury's verdict that the deal should stand and the costs be divided between the litigants. Declaring that no such verdict should be rendered in his court, the justice went to the jury room. He found the windows up and saw the jurors scampering down the snow-covered hill.—Philadelphia Record.

How to String Beads.

In stringing any precious beads, and pearls especially, never use a needle. Simply wash the end of the silk and pass it through the hole. The knotting is also an important point. It must be large enough to hold the bead, but not large enough to show. Pearl stringers use an intricate knot of their own, and that is why it is, on the whole, better to have very expensive jewels strung by a professional. When there is a collette or something of the sort to be made, this is absolutely necessary.

Heroism Under Knives.

Heroism on the operating table is generally regarded as a necessary display of fortitude and therefore not calling for particular mention. Its finest examples come under the observance of only a very few persons at best, and these few generally forget quickly what they have witnessed in preparing for another operation. There is nothing particularly thrilling about it, no attending battles or self-sacrifice or catastrophes to lend it color and attract attention.

How to Mend an Egg-Beater.

Don't throw away your Dover egg-beater just because it "skips" if it is otherwise good. Take some soft twine and twist tightly around under the head of the screw in the center of the wheel, until you have enough on to make it run firmly. It may wear off in a week or two, but is easily replaced, and I have found that it prolongs the working life of the egg-beater indefinitely.—Woman's Home Companion.

The Only Way.

To try to make others comfortable is the only way to get right comfortable ourselves, and that comes partly of not being able to think so much about ourselves when we are helping other people. For ourselves will always do pretty well if we do not pay them too much attention.—George MacDonald.

The Missing Bird.

"How do you find the chicken soup tonight, Mr. Newcomb?" queried the boarding house landlady. "I have no difficulty in finding the soup, Mrs. Hasher," he replied, "but I am inclined to think the chicken will be able to prove an alibi."

Worth Remembering.

One thing I have learnt, and I think it is worth remembering, that a heart heaven may be reached and touched everywhere, that one can help or hinder happiness by a tiny word.—Amy Le Feuvre.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION

Information of Importance to Everyone

A great deal of pain and suffering might be avoided if we had some knowledge of physiology and the care of the body, particularly those parts that do the most work and should always be kept strong and healthy.

In an interview with a prominent physician he states that people should pay more attention to their kidneys as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

During the winter months especially, when we live an indoor life, the kidneys should receive some assistance when needed, as we take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than Nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, inability to hold urine, smarting or burning, brick-dust or sediment, sallow complexion, rheumatism, may be weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

An herbal medicine containing no minerals or opiates has the most healing influence. An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper.

Grasps Forces of Nature.

A man's mastery over the beasts is not due to his superior strength. The elephant can push him over, the horse can pull more, and the lion can best him naked and bare handed. But he controls the brutes simply because he is wise enough to reach up and get hold of forces in nature more powerful than either the animals or himself.

Will California Stand for It?

J. Pierpont Morgan, organizer of the steel trust, the shipping trust and a dozen other gigantic combinations of capital, conceiving it to be good (?) for the people of this state, aspires to merge its independent telephone lines which he either owns or controls with those of the Bell Company which he also largely owns and controls.

A man does not have to be endowed with an inordinate amount of horse sense to perceive what is inevitable if the absorption of the independents by the Bell is allowed to go unchallenged. At conferences held in New York and Chicago a few weeks ago at which H. P.
Davison, one of Mr. Morgan's partners, Theodore N. Vail, President of the Bell System, and representatives of the independents were present, it was openly stated that with competition ended rates could be raised and economics instituted that would enable the monopoly to place the stock of the independents on an 8 per cent. basis. With both companies operating between practically the same points, under one management it follows that one of them will be superfluous, and that it will cost less to pay dividends on the outstanding stock of the absorbed companies than to operate them under the circumstances.

Thus, the monopoly, which now owns the Western Union Telegraph Company and through that corporation has recently acquired six of the largest of the trans-Atlantic cables, will control every channel of communication on land, except the telepost automatic telegraph lines.
It would probably buy this too, if the stock of that company was not tied up in a voting trust with Rear Admiral Sigsbee of the "Maine" and others sitting tightly on the lid to prevent just such a contingency.

With the end of the autonomy of the independents, every advantage secured by competition will be at once surrendered and every section of the state that has heretofore profited by the keen rivalry for business that has existed between the two systems will experience the same arbitrary inflation of rates as has followed the termination of competition elsewhere. The butcher, the grocer and the doctor will pay the freight. They can protest and anathematize the trust, call Morgan mean names and make the air heavy with sulphurous maledictions, but it won't do any good. In effect the trust will say: "If you don't like it, you need not have a telephone". But if you are without telephone connection in these days you cannot do business. The trust knows this.
Will the great commonwealth of California stand idly by the roadside while Wall Street in its greed for added revenues imposes another burden upon this constituency, whereby it may extort new tribute from every community in the state?

When he acquired control of the independents, Morgan made an affidavit to the Supreme Court of Ohio that his purchase was for private investment and not for the Bell Company. To get around this he now proposes to turn the stock of the two systems into a single holding company, which is only another way of "whipping the devil around the stump", and accomplishing by indirection what he is legally proscribed from doing directly. Have the people of California at whose pocketbook this move is aimed nothing to say? Have they no rights, which a Morgan must respect? Have they become so inert over the frequent abuse of corporation privilege that they hesitate to assert themselves?
If not its time for them to get busy, before it is too late.

Prohibition Does Not Prohibit

The Press editor this week received the following letter from a friend and subscriber:

Editor of the Press,

Dear Sir:—

Prohibition has been in force in some states for fifty or more years and never has prohibited. I would suggest that you "get next to yourself" and be progressive by advocating Mr. Smith's plan. It certainly would close up the "blind pigs" and that is where our boys learn to drink.
They would be ashamed to be seen to enter a public place where liquor was openly sold.

Yours Truly,

It is very evident that our friend is not informed on what is being done about the country, and in our next issue we will devote considerable space to informing him and others of some facts that he and all thinking, reasoning men should know. We will also state "Mr. Smith's plan" and our opinion of it.

That antagonism which has been supposed to exist between women and the ballot has disappeared. That women want to vote upon questions that pertain to her welfare as well as to that of the male voter, is evidenced by her activity in civic affairs, in educational matters, and in her support of woman suffrage.

Not only does her attitude toward her community, in which she does not vote, prove it, but statistics from the five states where she does vote, prove it. Where she hasn't it, she is working for it, and where she has it, she uses it.

Here in California, where both houses of the legislature voted by a large majority to submit the suffrage amendment to the voters, an educational campaign has been undertaken wherein the general intelligence of women, the good work of the five suffrage states, the force of influence of women in a community, the position of women in economic work, and the progress of our country at large, will be placed before the reading public of the state.

Seattle has proven the efficacy of the woman vote for the second time. On Feb. 22nd, when a primary election was held for city officials of Seattle, a large proportion of registered women voters went to the polls and cast a ballot which will result in a clean administration for that city. The recall of Mayor Gill was the first move that women made in the Washington political field, and it was a significant move which forbodes a revolution in the government of the state which only last November gave the ballot to its women.

At last Abe Ruef must go to jail. Last Wednesday Superior Judge Wm. P. Lawlor issued an order committing the arch grafter to San Quentin for a term of 14 years. It will not be time to rejoice, however, until he gets behind the bars and the keys turned. There is not much danger of his ever getting a pardon from Governor Johnson.

New Day Letter Service

With a view to increasing the usefulness of our Telegraphic Service, and affording patrons an opportunity to send long communications in plain language by telegraphic which may be of more or less urgency, at a rate made possible by a deferred order of transmission, it has been decided to establish a new class of service, known as "Day Letters" commencing March first. This service will be inaugurated between all Western Union offices in the United States upon that date; and as soon as the consent of the Canadian authorities can be secured,
it will probably be extended to the Great Northwestern and Western Union offices in Canada and the Maritime provinces.

Messages for transmission as "Day Letters" will be accepted at any hour for delivery upon receipt at destination; but they will be secondary to regular day messages in the order of transmission and delivery.

The rates for the "Day Letter" will be one and one-half times the "Night Letter" rate for fifty words; and there will be a charge of one-fifth of the initial charge for each ten words, or less, in excess of fifty. For example, the rate for a fifty word "Day Letter" from San Francisco to Chicago will be seventy-five cents, plus thirty-eight cents, or one dollar thirteen cents; and for each ten words or less, in excess of fifty, the rate will be one-fifth of one dollar thirteen cents, or twenty-three cents.

Code language will not be accepted at these rates.

In all cases "Day Letters" will be handled with reasonable dispatch and delivered with reasonable promptitude
on arrival at destination.

"Day Letters" may be filed by telephone or will be collected on call in the usual way, and will be handled the same as ordinary day messages in all respects;
excepting that, as stated, they will at all times be subordinated to the latter in the order of transmission and delivery.

Special "Day Letter" blanks, printed in blue on standard Manila paper, will be distributed shortly. If such blanks are not received by March first, regular day message blanks will be used with the designation "Day Letter" written or stamped on the top of the blank. After the preliminary distribution of these blanks they may be secured by requisition in the regular way. Ordinary day message envelopes may be used for the delivery of "Day Letters".

The printed conditions on the new blanks will reserve the right of the Company to make telephonic delivery of these messages.

The full paid ten-word message will take precedence in transmission and delivery over the "Day Letter;" but the latter will receive a reasonably prompt service; notwithstanding its subordination
to the full paid business.

Every effort should be made to develop this "Day Letter" service to the fullest extent and to make it useful and attractive to the public, leading to an entirely new use of the telegraph.

Until connecting lines adopt this service, it will be necessary to charge full "other line" tariffs to or from connecting lines on "Day Letters."

Efforts should be made to have connecting lines adopt the "Day Letter" service; and the Tariff Bureau will be advised of cases where the service is adopted by such lines in order that the information may be published. Efforts will be also made to have the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and their sub-licenses handle "other line"
Day Letter business at these rates.

Have requisitions submitted promptly
for full supply of necessary forms for use at your office.

An advertisement of this new service will appear in the principal morning and afternoon papers published at places having a population of twenty thousand or more on March first and again on following Monday, in addition to which other matter advertising this new feature of our service will be issued as soon as possible for distribution.

Yours very truly,

A. H. MAY,
District Commercial Superintendent.
